Hempsted Children and Families Newsletter

Hello and happy November! I hope the half term break went well for you. A lot has been happening since my last letter. Worship Group at school has restarted and members of Key Stage 2 are busy planning Collective Worship on the value of thankfulness. It was lovely to meet new families at Messy Church in October and welcome school into church for a joyful Harvest Festival service. Our next Messy Church is on 4th December and the theme is Advent. Join us as we count down to Christmas and get ready to celebrate the birth of Jesus.
